

Paulin Pâris - Art News Letter

N° 2 May 2004

Dear friends, collectors and clients,

it has been a long time since the last news, following are some pictures of the last projects, I was last month in the beautiful surroundings of Wyoming to create murals for a private house based on Native American design

Project for mural paintings in a private residence
Jacksonhole, Wyoming
Paulin Pâris, 2004

Other recent projects include this "Christian Bérard" Room for a beautiful private residence in Belair, CA
The walls as well as the floors are painted to bring this poetical atmosphere

This other painting is a 20' long canvas for "Clairefontaine", the school in Venice, CA where goes my daughter Sabine

It's going to be used as the set for the show they have before summer

Those murals based on intricate classic motifs were created for a private residence in NYC that's the best background for their beautiful art collection, that was hang on the walls later and, finally, regarding the commercial projects, there is 2 new projects in Las Vegas, NV

"Sea Blue" Restaurant at the MGM Grand and
"Bistro Bouchon" at the Venetian for the great Chef Thomas Keller

In Los Angeles, The Murals at "PASTIS" 8114 Beverly Blvd, where Arnaud the owner will give you the most friendly welcome

Also, my plaster lamps, Sculptures and Screens are available at "Bourgeois Bohème" 332 La Brea, LA 90036

I look forward to ear from you and do not hesitate to contact me for any further information
